

The Tribunal has granted limited representation in respect of the current module of its public hearings to the following parties:

1. Malcomson Law LLP on behalf of Women of Honour CLG for the following purposes:

- attendance at Opening Statements of the Tribunal's public hearings;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert witness whose evidence is relevant to the interests of Women of Honour CLG;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any other witness whose evidence may be relevant to the interests of Women of Honour CLG and/or where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of Women of Honour CLG;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to the members of Women of Honour CLG in general; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

2. Malcomson Law LLP on behalf of those individuals whose statements that firm had submitted to the Tribunal and who are called to give evidence to the Tribunal for the following purposes:

- attendance at the Opening Statements of the Tribunal;
- attendance at the Tribunal if and when one of their said Clients is called to give evidence and, if necessary, making an application to the Tribunal to put to one of their said Clients any outstanding questions that are relevant to the Tribunal's inquiry;

- making an application to the Tribunal to cross examine a witness where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of any of their said Clients;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert witness whose evidence is relevant to the interests of their said Clients or to any one or more of them;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any witness whose evidence may be relevant to the interests of their said Clients or to any one or more of them;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to their said Clients; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

In the current module, three of the witnesses scheduled to give evidence are represented by Malcomson Law LLP, namely, "Ms. T", "Ms Y" and "Mr. S".

3. Coleman Legal LLP on behalf of those individuals whose statements that firm had submitted to the Tribunal and who are called to give evidence to the Tribunal in the current module, for the following purposes:

- attendance at the Opening Statement of the Tribunal on 3 June 2026;
- attendance at the Tribunal if and when one of their said Clients is called to give evidence and, if necessary, making an application to the Tribunal to put to one of their said Clients any outstanding questions that are relevant to the Tribunal's inquiry;

- making an application to the Tribunal to cross examine a witness where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of any of their said Clients;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert witness whose evidence is relevant to the interests of their said Clients or to any one or more of them;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to their said Clients; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

In the current module, Coleman Legal represent the following witnesses who are scheduled to give evidence:

Alan Byrne

Martin Connor

Paul Kavanagh

Linda Kinsella

Michael Lawlor

Ronan Taheny

Brian Abernethy

Seamus Boyle

Edward Gibbons

Gerard Guinan

Ian Hutchinson

James Hutchinson

Denis Kennedy

Padraic Lenaghan

David McGrath

Brian Murphy

Laurence Murphy

John Murphy

Michael O'Connell

Damien Traynor

Patrick Traynor

Mary Traynor

Martin Wall

4. O'Regan Little Solicitors LLP on behalf of PDFORRA for the following purposes:

- attendance at Opening Statements of the Tribunal's public hearings;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert witness whose evidence is relevant to the interests of PDFORRA;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any other witness whose evidence may be relevant to the interests of PDFORRA and/or where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of PDFORRA;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to the members of PDFORRA in general; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

5. O'Regan Little Solicitors LLP on behalf of "Mr. R" for the following purposes;

- attendance at the Opening Statement of the Tribunal on 3rd June 2026;

- attendance at the Tribunal if and when their said Client is called to give evidence and, if necessary, making an application to the Tribunal to put their said Client any outstanding questions that are relevant to the Tribunal's inquiry;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross examine a witness where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of their said Client;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert witness whose evidence is relevant to the interests of their said Client;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to their said Clients; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

6. O'Mara Geraghty McCourt, Solicitors on behalf of Sgt. Rena Kennedy for the following purposes;

- attendance at the Opening Statement of the Tribunal on 3rd June 2026;
- attendance at the Tribunal if and when their said Client is called to give evidence and, if necessary, making an application to the Tribunal to put to their said Client any outstanding questions that are relevant to the Tribunal's inquiry;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross examine a witness where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of their said Client;

- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert or other witness whose statement has been furnished to them and whose evidence is relevant to the interests of their said Client;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to their said Clients; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.

7. Seán Costello Solicitors LLP on behalf of “2LtB” for the following purposes:

- attendance at the Opening Statement of the Tribunal on 3rd June 2026;
- attendance at the Tribunal if and when their said Client is called to give evidence and, if necessary, making an application to the Tribunal to put to their said Client any outstanding questions that are relevant to the Tribunal’s inquiry;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross examine a witness where it is asserted that such a witness has made an allegation that is capable of damaging the good name and reputation of their said Client;
- making an application to the Tribunal to cross-examine any expert or other witness whose statement has been furnished to them and whose evidence is relevant to the interests of their said Client;
- making a closing written submission in respect of the evidence before the Tribunal insofar as that evidence relates to their said Clients; and
- any other matters deemed necessary by the Tribunal.